| COMMUNICATED. NEW VIRGINIA SONG. Written for and sung by the Students of St.

AIR: - Uncle Sam's Farm. Ye sons of old Virginia, all, Come join us in a song; And let your voices ring it out, In chorus loud and strong. From broad Potomae's borders, Where the dancing waters shine, To the swamps and piney regions Of the North Carolina line. CHORUS: Come along! come along! Make no delay;

Come from every quarter! come in every way! The old State is strong enough, Feel no alarm. All the Brown-ites in the universe,

Can't do her any harm. They came to steal our niggers, But the niggers would'nt go; They had heard we harbored traitors, But they found it was'nt so; And from the Western mountains,

To the broad Atlantic's strand, Our people came together, And swept them from the land, Chorus: Come along, &c. They say they'll come to conquer us, With bayonets bristling bright; But if they do, they'll surely find Virginia boys can fight; They'd better stay at home, and make Their wooden hams and clocks; For here they'll meet with nothing, but The hardest kind of knocks. Chorus: Come along, &c. RAISE FRUIT.
